Lincoln Campus

Welcoming international students since 1880

In the heart of New Zealand's South Island, near Ōtautahi Christchurch is Lincoln University's Te Waihora campus.

Surrounding this historic yet modern campus are 58 hectares of green and pleasant fields. Around 3000 students from over 80 countries go busily about growing their future.

Great facilities are plentiful with advanced teaching spaces, a comprehensive library, leading-edge research laboratories with 24-hour access, eateries, a printery, world-class cricket facility and a fully equipped fitness centre.

It's the heart of one of the world's highest ranked small universities and New Zealand's best at harnessing the value of the land. And just like our students, Lincoln is changing and growing all the time.

Great futures grow at Lincoln

Choosing the best university for you is especially important when you are coming all the way from another country to study. With Lincoln, you can tick all the boxes. Take a look below at the 12 most popular reasons international students choose us.

01.

Great futures start here.

We believe the secret to an outstanding future is starting in the right place today. At Lincoln, you'll enjoy the perfect balance of credibility, experience and future-focus in a size that works for you.

Plus many of our programmes include practical work and field trips, for hands-on learning.

07.

World's 17th best small university.

We keep pace with the very best. Lincoln is recognised around the world as an outstanding small university that delivers quality learning and achieves exceptional results.

02.

Our history, your future.

Lincoln is the Southern Hemisphere's oldest agriculturally-based university. Our story began with farming and as New Zealand and the international economy grew more diverse, we kept pace. Today we are uniquely placed to offer relevant learning, informed by the past, with a vision for the future.

08.

6% higher graduate employment.

Industry both here and overseas know we produce outstanding graduates. A degree from Lincoln opens more doors and helps you get your career moving faster.

03.

A degree that works.

From Agribusiness to Landscape Architecture, Viticulture and Oenology to Tourism, Lincoln offers a wide range of degrees relevant for today and ready for tomorrow.

Lincoln offers a full range of qualifications including:

- Bachelor's Degrees
- Postgraduate Certificates & Diplomas
- Research & Taught Master's
- PhDs

09.

94% course completion.

Lincoln does more to help you succeed. We offer students the skills to achieve their study goals. That's why nearly all of our bachelor-level students successfully complete their courses.

04.

Good for the planet.

So much of what we do at Lincoln involves land and how we treat the planet. Our world-leading research includes ground breaking innovations in decreasing emissions, alternative fuels and sustainable tourism. And through the Sustainable Action Group for our Environment (SAGE), we also have a group of passionate staff and students that work to make sure our campus is as sustainable as possible. www.lincoln.ac.nz/sustainability

10.

More contact with lecturers.

Our staff pride themselves on always being available to talk to students. Our open-door policy is there to give you support and help you get the most from your studies.

05.

Being small makes a big difference.

We're New Zealand's smallest university, and that's a huge advantage. You enjoy a more personal learning environment and much more face-to-face contact with lecturers. Plus, Lincoln's village atmosphere provides a real sense of community and more collaboration among students.

11.

Leaders in research.

Through our own research, as well as our collaborations with world-leading research institutes such as Plant & Food Research and AgResearch, we have more academics producing more world-class research than any other New Zealand university relative to size.

06.

The grass is greener.

At Lincoln, we are careful to avoid stretching ourselves across everything. Rather, we put our resources into what we truly excel at. Our history is land-based and that's where our future lies. If yours does too, you're in the right place at Lincoln.

12.

Gender balance.

With a 51:49 percent split between female and male students, Lincoln offers a diverse experience in an inclusive and enriching learning environment beyond just what you learn in your lectures.

Global reach & relevance

Why do students from all over the world flock to study at Lincoln University year after year? It might have something to do with our beautiful campus and stunning New Zealand landscapes. Or all of the friendly, like-minded students and outstanding lecturers. Or perhaps it's our long list of international credentials:

World-class research facilities

By collaborating with the world's best research facilities and universities, it's no wonder Lincoln is renowned for its research.

Yili R&D Centre

Yili, one of Asia's largest dairy companies, established its R&D centre at Lincoln's campus in 2015. We work closely with them in researching all facets of dairy, from production to final consumer products.

Blinc

Created by five founding partners AgResearch, Landcare Research, Plant & Food Research (all Crown Research Institutes), DairyNZ, and Lincoln University – Blinc Innovation is focused on some of the most significant opportunities (and challenges) facing New Zealand's primary industries, with potential for enormous economic, social and environmental benefit.

Growing solutions

With a focus on the areas of land, food and ecosystems, our researchers are helping solve global challenges for people, planet and prosperity. Find out more at research.lincoln.ac.nz

Great local career prospects

The economic development and employment rate is much higher in Canterbury than other parts of New Zealand, full of potential and promising a bright future.

It pays to specialise

Lincoln focuses on agriculture, food and the whole value chain (including the environment, sustainable development, production, processing, supply chain, marketing, trade, and the end user).

That focus includes land planning and sustainable development – landscape architecture, environmental planning, land and property management, tourism and recreation management.

What does that add up to? Graduates who are true experts in their chosen fields.

Small in numbers, big in performance

In numbers of students, Lincoln is the smallest in New Zealand. But when it comes to student performance, we come out on top.

- Highest ratio of Master's and PhD students in New Zealand: 15%
- Best teacher to student ratio in New Zealand 13.5:1
- New Zealand's most successful research university*

*In research income per full-time academic staff member.

Highly recognised by government and industry

Lincoln University has always had a close relationship with New Zealand industry and national development. And that is especially true today.

Over half of our bachelor degrees have practical work and field trip components featuring lectures and research projects relevant to industry.

Lincoln consistently achieves the highest employment rate of any NZ university.

Lincoln has a 6% higher graduate employment than any other New Zealand university.

Lincoln is recognised by professional bodies in New Zealand and around the world and our graduates are always in demands

Practical Information

Accommodation

Welcome home

There's nothing like coming all the way from your own country and finding a place where you feel just as at home.

That's exactly what you'll find with Lincoln's on-campus accommodation. It's a friendly village-like atmosphere where students thrive and make lifelong friendships.

Our campus is home to around 600 students during the university year and you can choose between catered Halls of Residence, self-catered flats or houses.

Students living on campus say it's a fantastic way to enjoy their time at Lincoln. You'll make lots of friends; there's always something fun going on and you're just a short walk away from lectures, gym, shops, cafés and bars.

If living off-campus regular bus services to and from central Christchurch make it easy to get to your classes. Lincoln Village, Riccarton and Rolleston (suburbs in Christchurch) are popular options for student flats because of their convenience and exciting student community.

Houses

We have a limited number of campus houses, ranging from two–four bedrooms. They are ideal for students with families, and are in high demand. Please talk directly to the Accommodation Office to be considered for this option.

Renting

If you're ready to step out on your own, you're in a great part of the world to do it. There are lots of excellent homes available for rent in Lincoln, and around Christchurch city.

Homestays

If you're an international student or you just prefer a family living environment, a homestay could be perfect for you. We can help you find just the right place where you'll live a real Kiwi life with a real Kiwi family.

Student support

Leaving your home country to attend university overseas is a huge step. And it's easy to feel a bit confused or lost when you get there. At Lincoln, we understand what you're going through, so we have lots of special support for international students on campus. And our friendly staff are here to help you feel settled and at ease.

International Office

The International Office promotes and markets Lincoln University to prospective international students and works with its global network of education agents to provide high quality customer service. They also support students with programme and course advice and help students through the University's applications and enrolment processes. The team is proud to deliver essential pastoral care to international students during their time of study at Lincoln University.

International Student Advisors

The friendly and helpful team who can help you with any issue or concern, whether it's personal, social or cultural. If it's a legal, financial or academic issue, we can point you in the right direction.

Student Administration

Our team is ready to assist you with your study applications, enrolments, medical insurance, graduation, practical work and exam queries.

LUSA

The Lincoln University Students' Association (LUSA) provides representation and support for students. They also organise events and coordinate clubs and sports groups to keep you busy and having fun throughout the year.

Student Health and Support

We know sometimes things can seem daunting, or life can present an obstacle or two. And we really want you to know that we care and you don't have to deal with things alone. So we offer a full range of health and support services available on campus to make sure your time at Lincoln is a happy one.

Chaplaincy

Many international students come from a faith background, such as Christian, Muslim, Hindu, Buddhist and many more. We are here for all of you, as well as those without a faith or religious background. The Lincoln Chaplaincy team offer pastoral and spiritual support anytime you need it.

Learning, Teaching and Library (LTL)

The Learning, Teaching and Library team can help you to get the best out of your studies with learning support and access to an extensive collection of online and print resources.

They also provide a quiet place for you to study, either individually or as part of a group in a designated study space.

The team can equip you with a range of study techniques, including helping you to strengthen your writing, find resources, manage your research, enhance your learning and develop your career.

Additionally, they can assist with referencing and data.

You can find the Learning, Teaching and Library team on the ground floor of the iconic Ivey Hall building at the heart of campus.

Careers and Employment Advice

Sometimes choosing the right career path is easy. But if it's not, our experienced advisors and extensive resource information can help you make an informed decision. Lincoln students and graduates can access Lincoln Careerhub, a site that provides information about the graduate job market, internships, graduate programmes, scholarships, immediate vacancies and employer events. Plus we also host a range of recruitment events throughout the year featuring employers on campus for drop-ins, information sessions and networking.

NauMai NZ

NauMai NZ is for international students studying or about to study in New Zealand. It's an opportunity to get useful information to help you experience our land, lifestyle and culture, and navigate daily life along the way!

Find out more at naumainz.studyinnewzealand.govt.nz

Key information

Lincoln has a full network of support for international students to make your transition to New Zealand a truly life changing experience. We also use a number of other agencies for advice – see below.

Code of Practice

Lincoln University has agreed to observe and be bound by the Education (Pastoral Care of Tertiary and International Learners) Code of Practice 2021. Copies of the code are available from the NZQA website: nzqa.govt.nz

Immigration and your student visa

Full details of immigration requirements, advice on rights to employment in New Zealand while studying and reporting requirements are available from Immigration New Zealand and can be viewed on their website: immigration.govt.nz

Eligibility for health services

Most international students are not entitled to publicly funded health services while in New Zealand. If you receive medical treatment during your visit, you may be liable for the full costs of that treatment. Full details on entitlements to publicly funded health services are available through the Ministry of Health and can be viewed on their website: moh.govt.nz

Accident insurance

The Accident Compensation Corporation provides accident insurance for all New Zealand citizens, residents and temporary visitors, but you may still be liable for all other medical and related costs. Further information can be viewed on the ACC website: acc.co.nz

Medical and travel insurance

International students (including group students) must have appropriate and current medical and travel insurance while in New Zealand.

All New Zealand universities, including Lincoln University, endorse the insurance plan known as Studentsafe University. You can read more about the policy, premiums and contact details for claims: lincoln.ac.nz/insurance. The Studentsafe University policy can be purchased from Lincoln University when you complete your enrolment.

Lincoln's global network

Once you successfully complete your studies at Lincoln University, you become what is known as an alumnus (male), alumna (female) or alumni (plural) of the university, meaning a former student.

You'll be part of a global community of alumni, able to connect with each other and friends of Lincoln University.

All students who complete a course of study are automatically members of the Lincoln University Alumni Association and membership is free.

Christian Garcia Cedeno

Diploma in University Studies

Christian Garcia might be studying remotely at home in Mexico, but he has his future sights firmly set on a career in New Zealand.

Studying towards a Bachelor of Science with a Major in Biology as well as Conservation and Ecology, he would “love to be able to work in New Zealand after finishing my degree either studying the fauna or working in a lab focusing on biochemistry and/or genetics.”

He started his study at Lincoln through the Certificate in University Studies (CUS) online, excelled and then moved quickly onto the Diploma of University Studies (DUS). Christian said learning online was a challenging “but very fun and rewarding experience”.

“The course was very well organised, the tutors were remarkably thorough and they had an excellent disposition towards answering any inquiries.

He chose Lincoln University mainly because it was recommended to him “as one of the best universities for studying conservation and ecology” and because of its focus on field and laboratory research.

“Another thing that caught my eye was that I was told it has one of the highest employment rates after graduation, as well as plentiful opportunities to start engaging in summertime jobs related to my field.”

Study abroad & exchange

Study Abroad

Lincoln University offers a Study Abroad programme where you can attend Lincoln University for a semester or year and transfer the credits back to your degree at home. Studying overseas is a uniquely rewarding experience. You will develop a new perspective on life, grow your knowledge of your chosen subject and have the chance to explore a different part of the world.

Exchange partners

Study at Lincoln

Semester & academic year

How a semester works for a typical student

The University year is split into two semesters, with a two-week break in the middle. At the end of each semester there's a one-week study break, followed by two weeks for exams. Each semester looks like this.

One academic calendar year

As a full time student you will normally study four courses a semester. Each course is usually equal to 15 credits, and you need a total of 360 credits for a three-year degree. Postgraduate students will normally study three courses equal to 20 credits each.

Outline of a three-year degree

Courses are at different levels. Students start with courses at 100 level. These are sometimes referred to as "first year courses" but can be taken in other years. They generally prepare you for studying courses at the 200 and 300 levels, which are taken in your second and third years.

*Summer school is available for some courses from November. Visit www.lincoln.ac.nz/Study/ways-to-study/Summer-School/ for more.

Workload

Students are required to spend between four to five hours per week on each course (including classes, labs and tutorials), a total of 16-20 hours per week. Students should also spend four to five hours per week on self-study. Therefore, at least 40 hours of studying is required per week.

One credit = 10 hours.

The Bachelor of Agricultural Science, Landscape Architecture, Land and Property Management, and Environment Policy and Planning degrees include 480 credits. The rest of Lincoln University's Bachelor degrees are made up of 360 credits.

Online and remote learning

Lincoln University offers both online and remote learning study options.

Our online options are designed to be fully internet-based. You can study in your own time, at home or in a location of your choosing, either full-time or part-time.

Remote learning features a range of distance education programmes that will allow you to study off-campus until the option to study at Lincoln is available to you. Again you can do part-time or full-time study, with all lecture videos, notes, materials available online.

It allows you to start your study, and your Lincoln journey, while still offshore, so you have already begun your programme when you are able to join us in New Zealand.

You'll still enjoy the Lincoln experience through our connected support services as we help you to explore and cultivate your potential.

Programmes available online:

- Certificate in University Studies
- Diploma in Horticultural Business
- Postgraduate Certificate in Commerce
- Postgraduate Certificate in Environmental Management
- Postgraduate Diploma in Environmental Management
- Master of Business in Global Management and Marketing
- Master of Environmental Policy and Management
- Master of Wine and Viticulture.

For more information about the online or remote learning option please contact international@lincoln.ac.nz

Undergraduate pathways

Lincoln University provides accelerated and flexible pathway programmes to an undergraduate degree:

- Diploma in University Studies 2
- Diploma in University Studies 3
- Certificate in University Studies

Lincoln University accelerated degree pathway example

Features

- The Diploma of University Studies (DUS) is made up of two or three semesters. There are three intakes per year – February, July, November.
- The Diploma of University Studies 2 (DUS2) takes two semesters. DUS2 is the only direct pathway into level 100 papers by a New Zealand university, and approved by New Zealand's national academic body.
- DUS and regular bachelor students will study the same course at level 100.
- The Diploma of University Studies 3 (DUS3) takes three semesters. The level 100 paper taken in semester one can be cross credited into semester two.
- Students with all A grades in Certificate in University Studies (CUS) are able to move directly into DUS2, saving one semester.
- There is a 90% pass rate for DUS2 and DUS3.
- If a student does not pass an individual 100 level course, it may still be possible to move onto the second year of degree study.
- Compulsory free tutorials take place after class.
- The Certificate in University Studies can be completed fully online. Courses in the Diploma of University Studies programme can also be completed remotely. Please contact us for more details.

English language school

Intake dates

2023: 9 Jan, 7 Feb, 13 Mar, 17 Apr, 22 May, 3 Jul, 31 Jul, 4 Sept, 9 Oct, 13 Nov

If your English needs to improve before you begin your studies, we offer a special school that will help you reach the level you need to be:

English for Academic Purpose (EAP)

- The University's own English school has small class sizes
- Your pathway into any of Lincoln's programmes
- You are tested every four weeks, and if you pass, you can begin your programmes
- The most flexible EAP course of any NZ university.

Depending on your English level, you can study for 12 weeks, 16 weeks, 20 weeks, or 24 weeks (a four-week module). If you meet the required level before your enrolled period finishes, your remaining tuition fee can be transferred to the other programmes.

Students must have at least IELTS 4.0 to be eligible.

Our EAP course gives you the language and skills necessary for university study at undergraduate or postgraduate level. You can choose components to prepare for academic study, including:

- Reading academic books and journals
- Writing formal reports and research essays
- Studying academic vocabulary
- Using library resources
- Presenting academic seminars and talks, and taking notes.

Graduate Certificate in Academic English (GCAE)

GCAE is the only New Zealand university English language programme at postgraduate level approved by the Committee on University Academic Programmes (CUAP) and is also the New Zealand Qualifications Authority (NZQA) Level 7. The objective is to provide an alternative to IELTS. More importantly, GCAE prepares you well for future postgraduate level study.

You don't need to take IELTS again after completing GCAE to continue postgraduate level programmes at Lincoln. It includes the Bachelor of Landscape Architecture (Graduate Entry); Graduate Diploma/Certificate; Postgraduate Diploma/Certificate; Masters Degree (research/taught); and PhD.

This certificate meets the English Language requirement of IELTS 6.5 of other New Zealand Universities.

Length: 16 weeks

Content
Module 1: Weeks 1-12	ACEN301 (3 modules, total 12 weeks); Assessment after each module; Student may reach the requirement after two modules, and can proceed to ACEN303 in advance.
Module 4: Weeks 13-16	ACEN303 (one module, total four weeks) Includes literature review and research study skills

If you reach the required level within 12 weeks, then the remaining tuition fee can be transferred to your specified academic programme. If you reach the postgraduate required level, you can study the four-week ACEN303 course to prepare for further studies.

Entry requirements

1. Bachelor Degree
2. IELTS 6.0 (no individual band is below 5.5)
3. If the student hasn't reached IELTS 6.0, they can study EAP and reach IELTS 6.0 before moving into GCAE.

Small class sizes

Academic English classes at Lincoln usually have about 12 students. Small class sizes mean you have the opportunity to speak with others and ask questions. It also means our teachers have the opportunity to dedicate more time to helping you.

Full-time study

At Lincoln you will have 20 hours per week in class. In addition, you will be required to complete homework and reports. All of this is to help prepare you for your future studies. You will learn how to read, write and communicate in an academic context.

English further study awards

Any student who successfully completes a minimum of 12 weeks of EAP will receive a fees rebate award when you enrol in your next academic programme.

Anita Santosh Gowda (India)

Master of Professional Accounting (CPA)

Anita Santosh Gowda has some advice for graduates seeking their dream role - you may need to take another job first but work hard and make contacts and it will happen.

Anita, from India, has just completed her Master of Professional Accounting (CPA) at Lincoln University, and secured her new role as a financial accountant with NXP (National Express Product) in Auckland after initially working as a packer at the company.

She chose to come to Lincoln as it was offering MPA with the CPA accreditation.

“It is the only university, which was offering two courses at the same time, a master’s degree with a professional degree.”

She enjoyed the “beautiful buildings and spacious rooms” on campus and using the LU Gym, and had special praise for the Postgrad Space where she could study until late, as she lived with five other flatmates at the time.

There were a lot of course options, very supportive and helpful lecturers and staff, a host of events and activities, job fairs, and games and quizzes which she enjoyed participating in.

She described Lincoln as beautiful, calm, and unspoiled and recommended to other students to come to New Zealand “as it is a very beautiful country to live”.

Daryl Streat – Head of Programme for English Language

As the Head of Programme for English Language programmes at Lincoln, Daryl and his team prepare you for your studies and help you meet our English Language requirements. Their job is to help you settle into a new academic culture and build awareness of Lincoln’s academic English expectations.

Born in New Zealand and raised in Saudi Arabia, Austria, Holland and Taiwan, Daryl is an active member in the community and is the current President of the National Association of English Language Teachers (TESOLANZ).

If you are interested please contact Daryl via his email: daryl.streat@lincoln.ac.nz

English for Academic Purposes (Distance Mode)

English for Academic Purposes (Distance Mode) means you can work to meet our English language requirements for degree study from home, and go straight into your undergraduate or postgraduate study when you come to New Zealand.

You will learn about academic writing, academic reading, and report writing, enabling you to meet the English language requirements at Lincoln University and prepare for successful study in a university environment. Each week, there will be 15 live-streamed classes via Zoom. Each subject (academic writing, academic reading and report writing) will have about 3-5 live classes per week. In addition, there are learning support classes.

The programme will run from 2pm - 6pm (New Zealand Time) Monday to Friday.

Assessments

Each week there are tasks for each class to help you learn and improve your skills. These include assignments, forums, and quizzes. Three assessments contribute to your final grade:

- A reading test
- Writing tests (one essay, one data description)
- A research report (focused on in Research Skills classes).

Your live online classes will include reviewing preview materials, clarifying and explaining class content and completing activities to ensure you understand the subject material.

There are 37.5 learning hours per week, made-up of 15 live classes which are 50 minutes long. Writing, reading, and research classes have preview tasks and homework, use online language learning tools, and have quizzes and forums. You will also work on your research report.

Xiaohong (Maggie) Yang (China)

Xiaohong (Maggie) Yang, has found studying the online EAP has allowed her to follow her "original learning plan" despite the disruptions of travel due to Covid-19. Studying from Shanghai, China, she recommends the online EAP programme to students who cannot come to New Zealand yet. After finishing the EAP, she will be able to continue her study in the Master of Professional Accounting (CPA) programme at Lincoln University, rather than having to wait until she can travel.

There are some teaching tools to help enliven the learning atmosphere in the online classroom, and if you have any questions, you can send WeChat messages to the teacher, and they help you resolve any issues.

Xiaohong (Maggie) Yang (China)

Areas of specialisation

We have 10 areas of study that Lincoln specialises in. These areas of specialisations are designed to help you best identify what you need to study to accomplish your goals. A qualification from one or more of these areas will give you the skills to grow your future.

Agriculture, Horticulture & Viticulture

Primary production is the foundation of our national economy and that is truer now than ever. Demand for university graduates well exceeds supply and our students are sought-after across all areas of the sector.

As New Zealand's leading agricultural university, we have a long history of supporting the land-based industries to increase their productivity and sustainability.

This trend is set to continue, with a 70 percent increase in global food production required by 2050 to feed an additional three billion people worldwide.

Thousands of extra jobs will open up, with skyrocketing international demand for New Zealand exports such as meat, milk and wool.

There's never been a better time to enter the industry.

Our agriculture and horticulture programmes cover a wide range of disciplines, including biology, chemistry, and plant, animal and soil science, as well as management skills. The practical experiences we offer set us apart from other universities and prepare you to make an immediate difference to the industry.

Employment opportunities are wide-ranging, from farm and horticultural consultancy to rural banking and valuation careers, agribusiness roles, and working for the fertiliser, seed and livestock industries.

Business

Our business programmes open up a world of opportunities in a broad range of industries as diverse as agri-food, tourism, property, farms and global value chains.

We tailor our degrees to the business sectors, giving you a strong understanding of the concepts and industry-specific knowledge valued by employers. Our programmes produce work-ready graduates with a unique combination of skills that allow them to easily find employment or run their own businesses.

Our real-world examples and practical experiences will give you the skills to make an immediate difference in your chosen business career.

You'll learn from some of the best researchers and lecturers in the field and have access to the most up-to-date industry knowledge and many of our programmes, such as the Master of Professional Accounting degree with the CPA, have industry accreditation.

More reasons to study Business

CFA accreditation of the Master of Business (Finance) programme.

Lincoln hosts New Zealand first Yunus Social Business Centre, which aims to benefit of poor or disadvantaged members of society.

Our Bloomberg Room allows you to get a taste of market trading.

Environment

Studying environment with us means understanding the big picture in terms of sustainability, as well as focusing on some of the most complex issues facing the world today.

Our environmental graduates are in major demand, with many opportunities for well-paid employment in areas such as policy development, planning and impact assessment.

More and more companies are choosing to operate sustainably and minimise their impact on the environment, while raised environmental awareness and demand for greener production have increased employment opportunities in non-environmental industries.

Additionally, public and political interest in environmental issues, such as concerns over water allocation and climate change, is creating more opportunities for employment in environmental management.

At Lincoln, you'll learn from some of the best researchers and lecturers in the field and gain access to the most up-to-date industry knowledge, which is very attractive to a broad range of employers.

Throughout the world, people are faced with an ever-widening range of serious concerns such as resource depletion, pollution of air and water, and global warming. Decisions made now will have implications on the sustainability of the natural environment and on economic, social and cultural development.

Food, Wine & Beer

Our food, wine and beer courses will help to prepare you for fulfilling careers all over the world.

The food science and innovation programmes allow you to explore the latest ideas and knowledge, from ingredients, nutrition, processing and engineering, all the way through to the development of new food products, including formulation and commercialisation.

Meanwhile, Agribusiness and Food Marketing teaches a savvy approach to food production that focuses on balancing finite resources and a growing global population with consumers' increasing demand for high-quality products.

Alternatively, you could prepare for entry into the wine sector, with programmes that have been instrumental in developing the highly successful New Zealand wine industry.

We're also home to the only single-semester beer brewing course in New Zealand. This offers an invaluable opportunity to enter a growing sector and gain the in-depth knowledge required for career success.

We offer plenty of opportunities for practical work, from group projects in the lab, to individual assignments at private companies. Our degrees are highly rated by industry, as they produce graduates with the practical skills that employers are looking for.

We also lead the way in viticulture, having established the first tertiary-level cool climate wine production programme in the English-speaking world. Our Centre for Viticulture and Oenology is a top research organisation designed to help increase the economic value of the New Zealand wine industry.

Many of our viticulture graduates are working in leading winemaking regions all over the globe, from Auckland to Wanaka, from Asia to the United States of America. We have many industry connections such as with Oceanic Dairy Group, Fonterra, and DairyNZ.

Accelerated Degree and English Language Pathways

If you need to improve your English or study skills before beginning a degree, our English Language Courses and Accelerated Degree Pathways are for you.

Our English Language qualifications will prepare you for successful future studies or a career and you can use them to meet the English language entry requirements for our academic programmes. The Graduate Certificate in Academic English (GCAE) is specifically aimed at students wanting to enter postgraduate study. Both the Certificate and Diploma of University Studies are ideal if you have narrowly missed out on gaining a tertiary entrance qualification, as they will lead you into a bachelor's degree programme.

The Certificate in University Studies provides language, writing and study skills, along with concepts relating to communication and technology, mathematics, economics and environment. Once you have successfully completed the certificate, you can transfer to the Diploma in University Studies.

The diploma takes you from a predegree stage to entry into the second year of a bachelor's degree. Depending on your entry qualifications, you can complete it in two or three semesters. You'll develop your academic skills and study a range of courses from our bachelor's programmes.

Landscape Architecture

Landscape architecture uses a combination of science and art to create outdoor spaces that promote better ways of living.

There's a huge industry demand for landscape architects. The New Zealand market is growing quickly as more businesses realise the invaluable qualities that landscape architecture principles can bring to a project.

In 1969, we founded New Zealand's first professional landscape architecture qualification in the field. When you attend our internationally recognised School of Landscape Architecture, you'll work with some of the world's leading practitioners on a broad mix of design, ecology, planning, field tours and real-world projects.

You'll enjoy a dedicated space on campus with beautifully designed studios, room to install equipment, and space to lay out plans for design work and model construction so that you can develop your creativity to its fullest potential.

Our landscape architecture graduates are sought-after all over the world because of the experience they gain during their studies. They're viewed by industry as the cream of the crop and are able to immediately begin successful careers after graduating.

We can introduce you to networking opportunities and help you to develop a strong professional ethos.

More reasons to study Landscape Architecture

Our Bachelor of Landscape Architecture (BLA) and Master of Landscape Architecture (MLA) are formally accredited by the New Zealand Institute of Landscape Architects (NZILA) and the International Federation of Landscape Architects (IFLA). This means our graduates are eligible to become internationally recognised and registered professionals who end up working on major sites around New Zealand, Asia and the world.

Property & Valuation

Our comprehensive property programme has wide accreditation by professional bodies, highlighting its leading position in New Zealand.

We have been teaching property for 80 years and are highly regarded by the industry.

You'll work with some of the most experienced lecturers in the field, and gain access to up-to-date knowledge from industry professionals, who also deliver parts of the programme. The sector employs a huge number of Lincoln graduates. In fact, our Bachelor of Land and Property Management programme has a 100% employment rate, as the courses are highly relevant to the sector and allow you to gain applied skills during required periods of practical work.

Additionally, our close ties with a huge range of businesses and professionals, many of them Lincoln graduates, mean you can form valuable connections during your studies.

We'll provide you with the ability to make important decisions in both the urban and rural property fields — decisions that benefit businesses, consumers, society and the environment.

Best of all, every country is made up of properties that need to be managed and valued, so a property degree can take you all over the world.

Science

Our science programmes will prepare you to contribute to the sustainable management of land, water, air and the country's abundant natural resources.

There's a lot of demand for Lincoln science graduates in many industries, particularly areas such as agriculture, food science, environment and conservation.

Across all science disciplines, we use real-world examples and practical experiences to give you the skills to make an immediate difference in your chosen field.

Hands-on learning opportunities with leading scientists and industry professionals will get you a foot in the door as far as career options are concerned and the skills we teach are attractive to many employers.

Our strong research presence offers a broad world view of how science can be used to solve real problems, while our course content is highly focused, providing both theoretical and practical knowledge.

Sport & Recreation

You can turn your love of sport and recreation into a career. Practical course content, friendly lecturers and connections with various organisations, which will give you a foot in the door before you complete your studies.

A degree in this area from Lincoln can open up a world of career opportunities in an exciting and fast-moving industry. The sector desperately needs more graduates and we offer a wider range of sport and recreation subjects than any other New Zealand university.

The career opportunities are diverse, from working in non-profit or professional sporting organisations to forging a career in outdoor recreation, public health, or the management of sports events and facilities.

The market value of the sector in New Zealand is estimated at more than $5 billion, with gains in productivity and health benefits valued at over $1 billion.

We'll supplement your practical experiences with a theoretical knowledge of sport and society, governance, event and people management, and issues associated with managing community parks and sport and recreation services.

Our industry partners are well aware of the value of our programmes. Many organisations have hired Lincoln graduates and found them to be immediately work-ready, a quality that is supremely attractive to employers.

Tourism

There has never been a more exciting time to become a tourism professional. The sector is changing dramatically and will continue to do so over the next few years. Studying for a tourism degree now will put you at the forefront of this change and allow you to contribute to growing a more sustainable industry.

Our programmes are designed in consultation with industry to give you a broad knowledge of the sector at all levels. We provide knowledge and skills essential for a professional tourism career, with a range of programme options offering detailed insights into planning, events and business management.

University-educated tourism professionals continue to be in great demand, so a degree will help you to stand out from the crowd when seeking employment.

Our graduates are highly regarded by the sector, as they enter the job market with well-rounded tourism experience and have a strong grasp of the industry as a whole, from insights to practical applications.

We enjoy a close relationship with the sector, particularly as far as research programmes are concerned, so you'll have many opportunities to form valuable connections before you even finish your studies.

When you begin your career, you will be thoroughly prepared to hit the ground running, giving you the confidence you need to make an immediate difference to the industry.

More reasons to study Tourism

Tourism is one of the biggest industries in New Zealand.

We enjoy a close relationship with the Tourism sector, particularly as far as research programmes are concerned, so you'll have many opportunities to form valuable connections before you even finish your studies.
